TOTEM

Cubberley High School

Palo Alto, California

Beyond the purely academic, an education is completed only by contact with other human beings. From this alone can the understanding of human nature necessary to life in an organized society be developed.

For his aid in developing this understanding, we dedicate the 1962 TOTEM

to Gordon Parsons

Life at Cubberley

As we entered the year 1961-62, the school district worked under a new administration. Pictured with me here are Dr. Robert Johnson, Superintendent, Dr. Jack Rand, Assistant Superintendent, and Dr. Lloyd Swenson, Director of Secondary Education.

Cubberley held to its leadership role among senior high schools; we continued attempts to improve programs and instruction. Many students were engaged in seven courses instead of the usual six, and many courses met only three times a week. The language laboratory saw considerable expansion, and Cubberley was a pilot school in a national trial of new language materials. Team teaching was used increasingly in several courses.

Most important of all, students and staff continued to give the actions and spirit that make our school a good place in which to live together. We worked hard—and we invented a new achievement honor list to illustrate the fact. The new student government struggled to make itself more responsible to the student body. Too, our life held enjoyment, and the joy burst forth in events from "Life of the Party" to the Hukilau. Quality was a part of our year, from the top showing of our students in the National Merit tests to the richness of talent in Coed Capers.

There were over 1500 of us at Cubberley in 1961-62. In spite of numbers, we retained a meaning and a direction of our own. I know that the Totem will help you to remember the special meaning of our life at Cubberley.

LIFE

Administration

Again in 1962, Cubberley played a leading role in the Palo Alto Unified School District. Working to keep Cubberley not only abreast but ahead of the times, our administrative triumvirate — Dr. Laurits, our principal, and Miss Leveen and Mr. Parsons, our vice-principals — have made Cubberley a better place to learn. This forward-looking team has introduced new courses this year, and they are continually planning to revise and enlarge the curriculum and the physical plant. In September, the rotation and block system took on a new "twist" with the inauguration of the double block, which has proved especially helpful to students and teachers in math, science, home economics, industrial arts, and certain business courses. The administration's coordination and supervision of every phase of the educational and social function of Cubberley has made ours a smooth-running efficient institution.

Guidance

The average student is probably unaware of the vast amount of "undercover" work done in his behalf by the Guidance Department of Cubberley. It's not all simply a matter of deciding who should be suspended or expelled because of an accumulation of tardies. Files of information accumulated over the years of school help counselors to provide students with vocational guidance, to provide colleges with entrance information, and to answer prospective employers' questions. Counseling services help students solve problems that affect their educational development. In addition to individual counseling, an experiment in group counseling is proving successful.

Health Guidance includes more than providing band-aides and kleenex and checking temperatures. The health services of the district provide students with dental and audio testing and referral, speech therapy, and general physical examinations.

The Registrar's job is a headache that keeps the rest of our heads clear. Months in advance, programs are set up for students and plans are made to make next year's registration less confusing.

Student Activities

You may be upset on that rare occasion when two activities divide your loyalty. But, were it not for Mrs. Louis and Mr. Gates, you would by now be split asunder. The calendar in the Student Activities office is the focal point and symbol of their planning. The meetings they attend, the posters and general advertisement they approve, their numerous conferences with students . . . all find their pencil scrawl on the cardboard, as your social calendar is unscrambled even before you know the event's scheduled.

Librarians, Mrs. Irene Seward and Mrs. Dorothy Hall.

Librarians

Through the efforts of our librarians, the Cubberley library has become a better place to study than ever before. They are always ready to help a student use its many volumes to best advantage, whether the purpose be entertainment, research, or satisfaction of curiosity.

Special Education

The Palo Alto Unified School District, again at the "head of the line" in guidance, offers at Cubberley, under the skillful hand of Mrs. Geri Kickbusch, a special education course, part of a district program, in which students learn to prepare themselves to enter vocations and adult life, to become good citizens in a land where everyone's skills are appreciated and needed.

English

Dedicated to the belief that man communicates ideas and feelings by means of the position he assigns to combinations of words, Cubberley's English Department endeavors to help each student experience joy at perceiving clearly what it is that he is struggling to say and what others are striving to say to him.

Whether he describes his thought in a paragraph, gives his thoughts to others in discussion, frees a bit of his innermost self in dramatic expression, or releases the forces of thought in others through his words in a Cubberley publication, the student communicates a part of himself to others and receives from them a clearer image of himself. To guide each young person toward attaining his best in giving and in receiving communication accurately and with appropriate feeling is the task of each teacher in all phases of English.

Social Studies

The social studies department, under the leadership of Mr. Roberts, has made several advances in its curriculum. It now requires three full years of social studies and has added a Contemporary World course for sophomores. This requirement reflects awareness of the importance of the study of man in various roles and knowledge of the necessity to enlarge the students' viewpoints through study in the social sciences.

Because the team teaching was so successful with the senior classes last year, it was expanded this year to include the new Contemporary World course. Mr. Nichols heads the senior team teaching staff, and Mr. Chanteloupe is in charge of the new sophomore team.

Cubberley's Science Department has worked these past six years to bring us not only the fundamental but also the most recent knowledge and understanding the world's scientists have uncovered. Experimentation in method and depth of learning has produced double blocks in chemistry and biology; a college chemistry course, last offered two years ago and revived this year; the chemistry classes' use of the newly-developed laboratory manuals, Chemistry: an Experimental Science; and the Biological Sciences Curriculum Study course.

Mathematics

The mathematician Karl Fredrick Gauss (1777-1855) declared mathematics to be "the queen of the sciences." Cubberley's progressive math department has paraphrased this statement to their own inspiring motto: "Mathematics, King of the Curriculum." In their successful program to validate their motto, the math department uses the School Mathematics Study Group text books, college texts for advanced senior calculus, and overhead projectors. Team teaching in the geometry, algebra, and senior math classes is being used for the first time this year. In addition to advanced placement calculus, analytic geometry and probability and statistics are offered to Cubberley's more capable students. With the exception of Miss Mason and Mrs. Hsu, the two new additions to the department, all the teachers have special assignments in order to coordinate most efficiently the various math classes. Cubberley's up-to-date math department gives everyone at Cubberley something to be proud of.

Are you sure of that??

And this is Santa Claus.

Language

The philosophic basis of our language department is that, because language is essentially a spoken phenomenon, this skill should be stressed in learning. The audio-lingual approach used in our language laboratory has proved successful in helping students to retain and use languages. Reading, writing, and listening comprehension, part of the process of language, are also integral parts of the language curriculum. French V-VI and Russian V-VI are experimental courses this year in this department which vocally demonstrates its exploration and enthusiasm.

Music

The Music Department, under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Peters, right, and Mr. Douglas Hornbeck, left, offers courses to any student interested in this art, whether his talent is vocal, instrumental, or merely appreciative.

This department, in addition to formal instruction, also provides background for such activities as Co-ed Capers, the operetta, and football games.

Art

The Art Department wishes to provide a flexible, creative arts experience for all students. They wish to help develop students who show aptitude in art and want to go into art as a profession, and they wish to help students who are not sure of their goals discover that art experiences can give a sense of enjoyment.

Girls' Physical Education

The Girls' Physical Education Department believes that physical education is an integral part of the total education process at Cubberley. It provides an opportunity for the continuous development of each individual's physical, mental, social, and emotional capabilities through a systematic and selective instructional program. The unique contribution of physical education to each individual's total educational process is that of developing an appreciation of one's own physical fitness as well as creating an interest in and enjoyment of physical activity for recreational purposes.

The Boys' Physical Education Department is also dedicated to the belief that mental activity is supported by healthy physical activity: a sound mind is part of a sound body. Boys are instructed in a variety of sports activities, from football to baseball, through the year. Extracurricular sports competition provides the major impetus for Cubberley's outstanding school spirit.

Industrial Arts

This year, as before, the Industrial Arts Department at Cubberley has strived to bring the best of this field to those interested. Among the courses offered are Graphic Arts, Woodshop, Drafting, and Auto Mechanics.

Homemaking

The Homemaking Department, led by Mrs. LaMetre, left, and Mrs. Birkenbeul, right, is concerned with teaching the girls of today to become the homemakers of tomorrow. The comfortable lounge, used for teas and fashion shows, exposes students to the etiquette, glamour, and economy of good homemaking. Double blocks, enabling the girls to spend more time improving their skills, are very successful. The curriculum includes home furnishing, dress designing, child care, serving, and foods.

Carousel

Each year, early in the spring, the Music and Drama Departments, with help from the Art Department and stage crew, combine their talents to present a musical. This year, Rogers and Hammerstein's "Carousel," a tear-jerker straight from Broadway, drew full houses and turned away large crowds both nights it played. The musical, whose student directors were Nancy Perman and her assistant, Jeanne Dawson, was the largest and most successful production in Cubberley's history.

Student Government

1961-1962 tested the Re-Vamp Constitution established the previous year. Since Re-Vamp was untried, it offered unforeseen problems as well as benefits. The student government was called upon to establish precedents in the problem areas with the hope that succeeding administrations may solve their problems more easily.

The advantages of Re-Vamp are numerous. Through its Assembly representatives in history classes, the entire student body learns what is happening in the government. The Student-Faculty Council offers greater opportunity for agreement between these two groups. Reports on separate meetings with the president, vice-president, and secretary make it possible for the executive branch to concentrate on the individual commissioners' activities and eliminate Cabinet meetings. The greatest opportunity the new constitution offers is in the area of student participation. Here students really interested in government may be active through interest groups and committee work for commissioners.

Innovations this year were the suggestion box, the copying of Assembly minutes for each representative, publishing of general voting results, and more extensive coverage of Cubberley affairs in the Palo Alto Times. Continuation of the governmental newspaper, Black & Gold, and open meetings at noon, both started last year, further informed students of governmental activities.

The effort of student government was aimed mainly toward building a unified school spirit through the cooperation of all its members.

American Field Service

The scholarship program of the American Field Service grew out of a tradition of world understanding and service which began in 1914 as a makeshift American Ambulance service in the battlefields of France. Today, fifty foreign countries exchange teenagers with the United States for a summer or a year. These teenagers live with families in their host countries, studying in their schools, learning their customs, living in a foreign culture, so that they may gain a better understanding of the peoples of the world.

Judy Hendrickson, Ron Davis, Gail Erickson, and Linda Ike, our four AFS finalists, look forward to possible visits abroad.

Paula Busch, our other exchange student from Cubberley, has spent this school year in Sweden.

Varsity

Cubberley's 1961 Varsity Squad experienced a not too successful season in terms of chalking up the points, but they were certainly not lacking in spirit. Len Doster, who moved up to the position of head coach to replace Bud Presley, made sure of that.

After losing their first game of the season, the Cougars recovered with a win over St. Francis, the Cougars third victory out of four games with the Lancers. Lineman Herm Meister was the hero of the day. Grabbing the ball from Lancers' half-back Pete Reynolds, he darted eight yards for the touchdown. St. Francis, scoring in the fourth quarter, was unable to make the extra point because of Meister's block, and the Cougars clinched the game.

Cubberley's first league win was its victory over Woodside. The Cougars' offense was especially good. Kerby Ruff was in fine form, scoring both touchdowns—the first on a three yard run and the next on a forty-three yard pass by Bill Pletch.

The next game against Ravenswood also was a victory for the Cougars. Fine ball playing by the team chalked up a score of 24-0.

Despite spirited support and hard playing, the Cougars this year, for the first time in the two school's five years of rivalry, lost the game with Paly. The Cougars by far gave their finest performance of the season. The Vikings had a difficult time of it in breaking through Cubberley's tough defense which gained one more first down than the Vikes and secured a fine 131-126 edge in rushing. Unfortunately, Paly played one of its best games of the season and the final score ended in a 20-6 victory for the Vikings.

Cubberley finished out the season with a hard-fought game against Menlo-Atherton.

Football

The Cougars held the Bears until the closing minutes of the game when M-A broke through for six points. But Cubberley wasn't able to match the score despite fine passes by quarterback Shambora and the final score was 6-0.

For his outstanding performance in the St. Francis game, Herm Meister was elected the PALO Club's "player of the week." He was also chosen as a member of the 1961 SPAL team.

Sophomore Football

Cubberley's Sophomore Football Team smashed through the season with an undefeated record to win the SPAL title. Tom Kmetovic was the star quarterback of the team showing outstanding ability as a passer and runner. Fred Morris at half-back also gave a fine performance. Team work, hard playing and determination won the title for them. Honored in the post season polls were Edginton, Mitchell, Morris, Kmetovic, who made the first string SPAL team, Coffron, who made the second string, and Everest, who received honorable mention.

Cross Country

Coach Panholzer's "Miracle Boys" ran an amazingly successful season this fall to pick up a Third place in the SPAL finals. Hoyt and Tarbell finished first and second respectively at the end of the season with two sophomores, Wilson and Furst, displaying a fine performance on the Varsity team. Next year promises to be an even better one as the team will lose very few of their top members.

C&D. Basketball

Cubberley's outstanding C Basketball team won the SPAL title by concluding their season with an undefeated record. Players chosen for the SPAL team based on their exceptional performance include: John Woodmansee, Rick Kuhta, Bob Neill, and Chris Neall.

Unfortunately the D's were not as successful in their season this year. With practice they will probably be able to better their record next season.

B. Basketball

...And the Cougar-Viking toss-up sets the game in motion.

The B's had a moderately successful season playing the same schedule as the Varsity. Outstanding players included Nate Kimura, John Nakata, Dan Fein, Rob Taylor, and Steve San Jule.

Varsity Basketball

The Cougar basketball team completed a moderate season with a six to eight record in SPAL competition, giving them a tie for fifth place with Woodside this year.

The team saw some fine playing in guards Ray Gale and Ron Lukasik, forwards Bob Kunselman and Jim Pollner, and centers Bill Neall and Jan Hill.

Cubberley opened its season with a victory over Lowell High School, 28-26. The first quarter found the Cougars able to hold the score at 6-0 through a tight defense. Lowell then roared through to the fourth quarter and a 26-24 lead over Cubberley. The Cougars were able to tie the score through a foul shot by Lukasik. He went on to sink the winning fifteen-footer in the last seconds of the game.

After a 45-60 loss to Ravenswood, the Cougars made a fine comeback in a high score of 51-38 over the Carlmont Scots. Fine shooting by Ray Gale and Ron Lukasik, plus the fine defensive performance of third-string center Jim Hendrickson, proved to be the Scots' undoing.

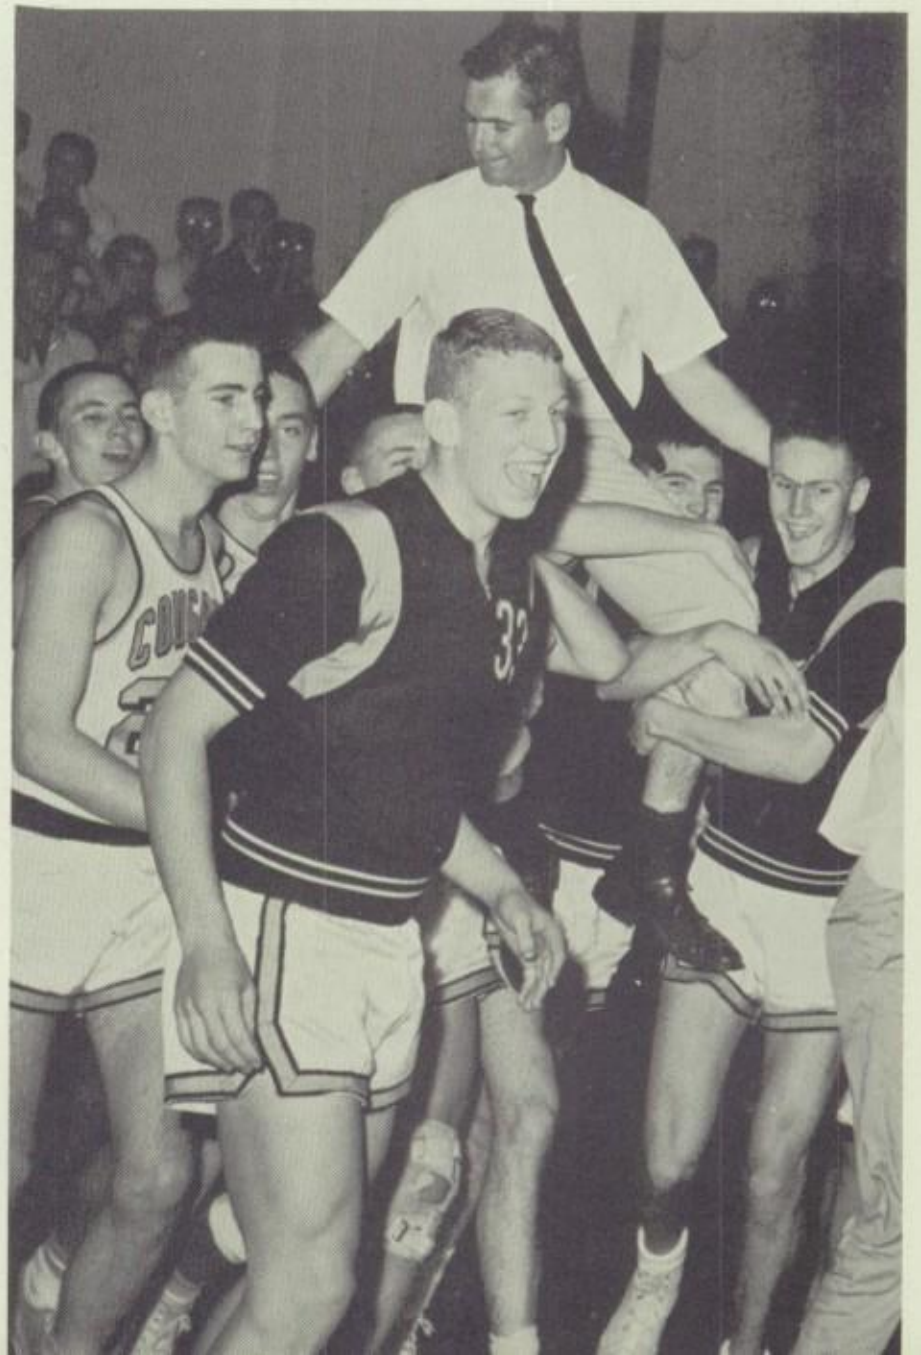

Although Cubberley lost to Paly in their first league clash of the season, it was probably one of the most exciting games seen in a long time. The Cougars took an early lead 6-3 but trailed at the half 21-11. Early in the second half, Cubberley closed the gap to 25-18 through fine shots by Gale and Lukasik. The score remained close throughout the remainder of the game, with a tie of 37-37 at 2:46 left on the clock. Paly's center, Frank Tarants, then proceeded to sink a free throw with four seconds left in the game, and the score 38-37 for Paly.

The Cougars finished their season on an upswing with a victory over Carlmont Scots, 45-42.

Varsity Wrestling

Cougar wrestling squad finished their season with three wins, three losses, and one tie. Although the season record was not outstanding, many outstanding wrestlers composed the team. In the South Peninsula Athletic League Novice at Cubberley, Bill Dinges (sophomore) placed third in the 103 lb. division, Bill Grant (senior) placed first in the 120 lb. division, Doug Ogasawara (junior) placed second in the 127 lb. division, and Bob Newell (senior) placed fourth in the 175 lb. division. Bill Grant, one of the finalists, finished his season with an undefeated record.

Many of the Cougar wrestlers grappled their way to the South Peninsula Athletic League finals at Menlo-Atherton at the end of the season. They were Bill Dinges, first in the 98 lb. division; Roger Takiguchi, third in the 106 lb. division; Mike Ashworth, fourth in the 115 lb. division; Bill Grant, first in the 123 lb. division; Doug Ogasawara, fourth in the 130 lb. division; Bill Bickenbach, second in the 168 lb. division; Herm Meister, fourth in the 194 lb. division; and Nat King, third in the unlimited division.

Varsity Track

Cubberley's track squad expected a fine season, hoping to finish within the top three teams in SPAL competition. Coach Skillicorn was assured of this because of strength in the short and middle distance runs and the broad-jump. The fine coaching staff includes Coaches Skillicorn, Guthrie, and Panholtzer.

Varsity Swimming

An improved swim team under the able coaching of Clarence Merkley will finish within the first five places in the SPAL League standings this year according to the pre-season predictions. Because of the solid foundation they are now building, the coach is optimistic about the future, expecting the Cougar swim team to finish within the first two places in two years' time.

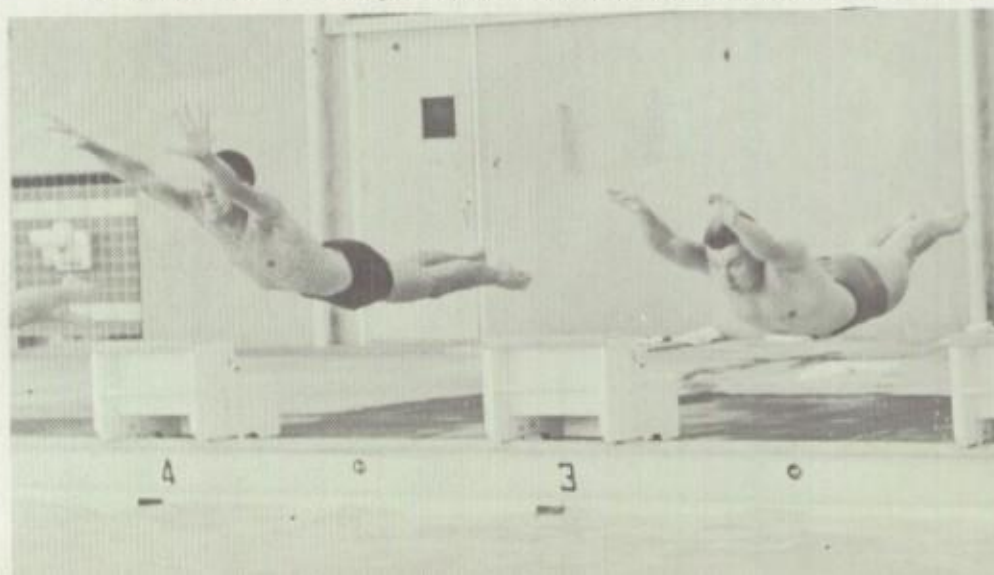

Of the twenty-two member team, outstanding talent includes Seniors John Wedekind, Craig Tempey, and Greg Belenky, and juniors Doran Damitz, in addition to sophomores Pete and Judd Shutts, and Russ Dore.

The new pool will enable the team to hold their first home meet which will give the students a better chance to see the team in action.

Jud Shutts practices his 100 yard butterfly.

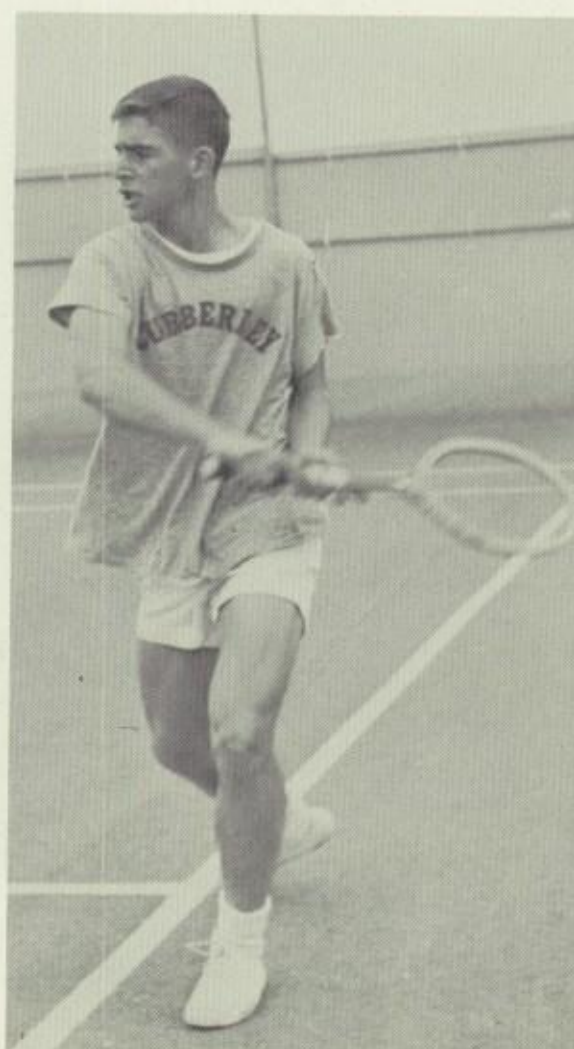

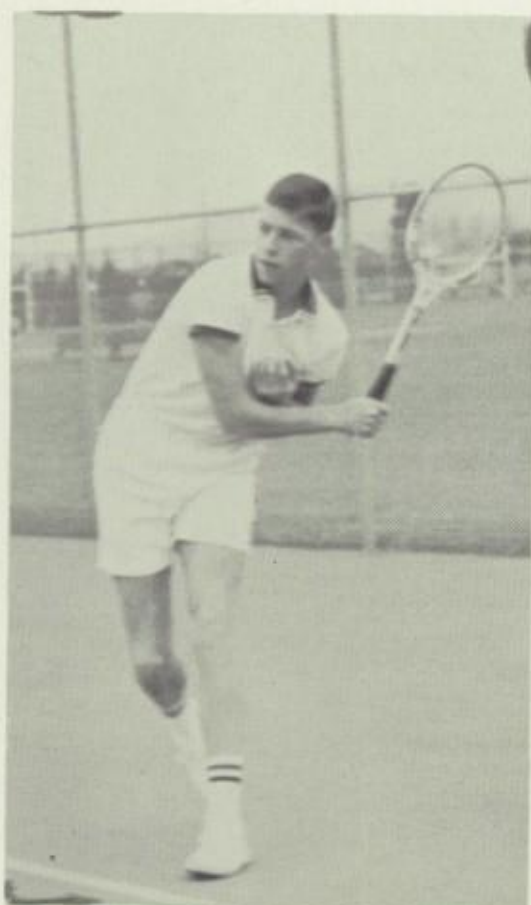

Doran Damitz and Craig Tempey show great promise for this season.

Outstanding swimmers, Craig Tempey, Jud Shutts, and Doran Damitz with Coach Merkley.

Tennis

The Cougar Tennis team under Coaches Jess Hill and Bill Nicols demonstrated fine playing ability this season against tough competition.

Golf Team

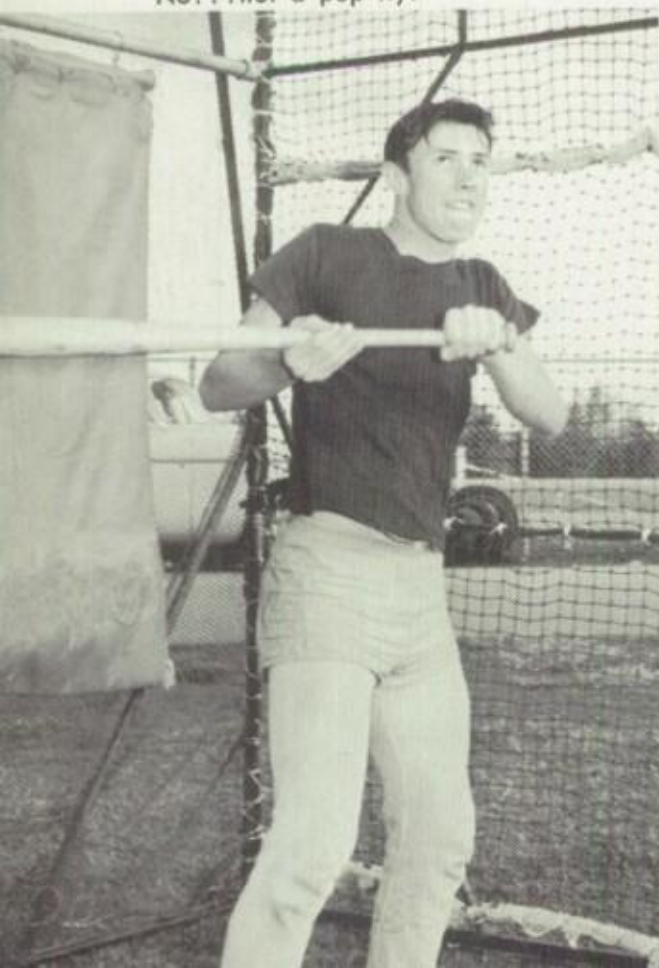

Coach Bow expects a great team, provided two more exceptional golfers join his seasoned varsity, composed of top-rated players Steve Burich, Don Bowen, Jim Pollner and Ken Powell.

Coaches Hurley and Summers expect the six returning players from the previous season to be among this season's stars. They are Norm Bjork, Ray Gale, Bob Kunselman, Wayne Miller, Tim Morin, and Bill Pletsch.

Girls Sports

The Girls' Sports Board, under the leadership of commissioner Marty Norberg, is composed of the sports managers and other appointed members. Its main duties are organizing the after-school sports program and planning special sports days and the awards banquet.

This year, for the first time, Cubberley had a girl's hockey team. Despite spirited practice, they lost their only game 2 to 1. However, prospects for next year are bright, with most of the team returning.

Nancee Hermanson shows the backhand that has helped her earn a spot on the tennis team for two years.

Also a two-year member, Lynda Brothers won the feature match against Palo Alto 6-2.

Basketball

In addition to the usual after-school basketball program a girls' basketball team was formed. This was the third year Cubberley has had a team, and the spirit and ability has improved greatly. They started the season with a 26-17 win over the Fremont High School team. They also played Holy Cross and won 29-22.
